

WORKSHOP

Deaf Culture Awareness, Sign Language History & Audism Education

Audism is the systematic and structural oppression against Deaf, Hard of Hearing, DeafBlind, DeafDisabled and Late deafened people in media, institutions, professional, social and personal interactions. In this workshop, participants will explore how audism shows up in the classroom and society at large, increase awareness of Deaf culture, gain pedagogical and practical tools to create an inclusive classroom and learn about the rich history of sign language and education.

FACILITATOR

Amar Mangat

My name is Amar, I am Deaf. I am a content creator of Sign With Amar on Instagram, Deaf Interpreter and ASL Teacher. I grew up in Toronto then moved here in Vancouver when I was little. I am a West Coast city person full of happiness, coffee, explore, explore life, nature and appreciating nature. Currently I am working as a Deaf Interpreter and working towards having my own career path to become a full time Deaf Interpreter to work in the community and theatre then in the future I was hoping to work in the medical field as a Deaf interpreter.
